City Commission Hears Committee's Protests IN EXECUTIVE SESSION

Mayor Says Request May Be Delayed

As a result of suggestions presented members of the city commission this morning by directors of the Chamber of Commerce, the jitney ordinance drafted to give jitneys here free reign to compete with the Port Arthur Traction Company may be held up 30 days. Following regular commission meeting at 11 o'clock today, the commissioners went into executive session in Mayor J. P. Logan's office to discuss the Chamber of Commerce directors' proposals that the measure be withheld for a period of 30 days, during which time the Chamber of Commerce hopes to work out some solution of the transportation problem here.

CLOUDS REDUCE SHOPPERS HERE

100 Stores Offering Un-usual Bargains

Threatening skies today held down the number of shoppers participating in the opening of the "Big Trades Days" being sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association and the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping. Today was the inaugural day of the huge trades event, scheduled in Port Arthur to attract customers from within a 25 mile radius of the city here to do their shopping and get acquainted with Port Arthur.

100 Stores in Event
Today the stores of more than 100 progressive Port Arthur business men were thrown open in the 10-day carnival celebration. Special bargains daily is the rule in many of the stores, other of the merchants placing some widely known article on sale at a vastly reduced price during the entire run of the trades days.

In order to attract hundreds of out of town shoppers to the stores of this city during the trades days sale, refund transportation fares will be refunded to people living within a radius of 25 miles of Port Arthur who make purchases of $15 or more during the sale.

Special Awards
Special awards will be made at the conclusion of the Trades Days event when some $1,000 awards, including a Ford touring car will be distributed to the people participating in this sale. In view of this coupons will be given for each dollar spent on cash purchases or money paid on account during the sale.

The making of the awards will take place Saturday afternoon April 20, and it will be necessary for any one receiving an award to be present.

Port Arthur Baby Smothers to Death As It Crawls Under Pillow While Asleep

Easter tide will mean little this year to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Theriot, 1224 Thirteenth street for their little Bunny left her home yesterday. Theriot's was smothered to death as she dreamed of Little Margaret, four months old daughter of the found under her pillow in her crib shortly after 4 fuzzy bunnies, easter eggs and a new bonnet. She was as dead yesterday afternoon—dead.

Sunday was to have been the first Easter for Margaret—If B. Baker today said he was continuing the investigation in hopes of presenting some tangible evidence at the inquest, which is being conducted by Justice of the Peace W. F. James, acting as coroner.

Motive for the theory of murder advanced by officers investigating Furlow's death was believed to have been discovered, Baker said today.

He now believes Furlow came to his death following the discovery of a thief or thieves at work in the barrel house, stealing lubricating oils or gasoline.

Oil Drum Moted
This theory, Baker states, is in a measure substantiated in the finding of a drum of gasoline stacked away near a door leading out of the barrel house and a five-gallon can of lubricant nearby. Both containers were found away from the pile of filled gas drums.

All yesterday afternoon was devoted to a further investigation of the case by Baker. He was called to Beaumont to court, however, today.

Officials to Confer
Judge James and Baker were scheduled for a meeting this afternoon to discuss the various angles which had entered the case since the finding of the lifeless body of the aged watchman Sunday night, when it was first thought Furlow came to his death as the result of a fall down the elevator shaft.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from the Greater funeral parlor, interment being in Greenlawn cemetery. Members of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan attended the funeral and played a fiery cross wreath on Furlow's grave.

Findings of Knife Solves Mystery
WASHINGTON, April 16.—Handling of Texas land fraud cases by certain government agencies was "extremely unusual," postoffice inspector J. M. Donaldson of Kansas City testified today before the senate investigating committee.

Donaldson said he encountered extraordinary difficulties in his own investigation and that many reports came to him that "things had been fixed" and that the land companies would never be prosecuted.

Farm lands of the territory to be served by the extension of the Duff railroad are no respecters of persons. Though not as yet blessed with a flow of liquid gold as was Spindletop the lands adjacent the W. B. T. S. have been plodding along steadily for the past half century.

Not content with furnishing independence for a group of lumbermen who took the first cuttings of timber off the lands years ago, these same lands, having been cleared are now piling up fortunes for another band of workers—the cotton planters.

Editor's Note: This is the fourth installment of a series written exclusively for The News by Tom Wilhelm, a Jefferson county's best known financial writer and economist, following an inspection of the cotton plantations controlled by Col. R. C. Duff. Duff's plan for permission to construct another railroad into Port Arthur is now pending before the I. C. C.

It was going to be, oh ever so much fun. 'Course Margaret couldn't wait up to see the bunny, but he would surely hop by with those big bounds of his on his Easter tide rounds.
Baby's first Easter, mother and dad had planned much for Sunday. Perhaps a new cape for baby, who could tell what the bunny would bring?
But now the dye which mother bought to help Bunny color the eggs lies dusty on the shelf. The extra eggs purchased for the occasion will be used up in time, but the empty crib—and Sunday is Easter—and so much planning—and little Margaret gone—and only four months—

CHICAGO, April 16.—Mrs. Georgia Hamon Rohrer, widow of the late Jake Hamon, slain Oklahoma politician and oil millionaire, today defied the senate oil investigating committee to force her to testify.

When John L. Oros, deputy United States marshal, located Mrs. Rohrer after 40 days search, and by a ruse served a forthwith subpoena, Mrs. Rohrer indignantly declared:

"The former attorney general didn't pay any attention to their old forth with subpoenas and I'm just as independent as he ever was. The senators down there are acting like a lot of school boys."

Mrs. Rohrer was found at the Arts Club and Oros gained entrance by posing as a lover of the arts.

"What?" exclaimed Mrs. Rohrer.
"Well, I'm not going," she declared.
"I've always been a good democrat and Jake never told me any of his republican secrets so for the papers wants, well they were burned up months and months ago."

It's up to the city now to dispose of the $1,050,000 bonds called for in the recent bond election.

Mayor J. P. Logan made this known this morning during regular session of commission when he asserted all bids received and opened yesterday had been rejected.

It is understood the city sent out a number of telegrams this morning announcing on what terms the commission will dispose of the bonds.

Only two bids were received yesterday, neither of which was satisfactory. One bid offered $125,000 for the 3 per cent sewer extension bonds, with accrued interest, while the other offered par on all bonds with accrued interest, and outlined a deferred payment plan, with the privilege of taking $27,000 as commission for disposition of the bonds. Both were rejected.

These stumps might be chopped out or cut down and sold for cord wood—if there were a market. Given a market the stumps would bring enough money in cord wood to pay for the clearing of the land. With the present railroad facilities, there is no good market for the cord wood.

Gift for the clearing of cotton dot the route of both lines of the Duff interests. Other girls will be erected this summer in order to take care of the increased acreage in cotton which is to be planted this spring.

Last season with an almost bumper crop, 15,000 bales of cotton were transported by the Duff of the W. B. T. S. With the increased acreage, which in this district may run 20 per cent increase over last year, it is expected to haul comparatively more cotton.

TESTIMONY OF THAW DELAYED

Millionaire Is Disappointed When Not Called
EXPERT CALLS HIM SANE

But Admits He Talked Only With Harry

By FRANK GETTY
United Press Staff Correspondent
PHILADELPHIA, April 16.—The climax of the Thaw sanity trial is to be reserved for tomorrow.

"There is no chance of Harry Thaw taking the stand today," Judge Patterson, his counsel declared this afternoon after examination of medical witnesses had dragged beyond their expected length.

The millionaire who is seeking freedom after seven years' confinement as a lunatic, was disappointed and disappointed that his turn to testify in his own behalf had not arrived.

Took Thaw's Statement
The first witness, T. R. Phillips, a court stenographer, testified to taking a deposition of 30,000 words made in a single day by Thaw in Mar. 1918.

Dr. George Wilson, of the University of Pennsylvania, gave evidence that Thaw was sane.

Gross examination of Dr. Wilson delved into Thaw's whole life. Dr. Wilson declared his opinion that Thaw had reached the age where sexual impulse was "waning."

Refused to Answer
"Did you ask Thaw, when you examined him, about his killing of Stanford White?" William Gray, attorney for Evelyn Nesbit, who opposes her former husband's release, asked.

"What did he say?"
"He refused to answer."
"Did you ask him about beating young girls—one of them so severely that when he was through the pieces of her shirtwaist had to be picked out of her flesh?"

"No."
"Did you ask him about the 'Gump matter'?"
"Yes, but he evaded the question."
"Thaw's alleged assault upon the girls occurred as far back as 1905."

Witness Grilled
The witness said he thought there was no truth in this charge.
Gray ripped into the witness with all the fire that has established his reputation as a great trial lawyer, attacking the doctor's argumentative attitude.

Judge John Patterson, Thaw's counsel, took the witness back in hand for a discussion of heredity, suicide and disease, during which Dr. Wilson declared Thaw bore no traces of inherent insanity and that his attempted suicide was not a sign of unsound mind.

LABOR READY FOR CONVENTION

Port Arthur today presented a carnival spirit as Procter street took on a holiday appearance due to the assembling here beginning Friday of some 500 delegates to three state labor conventions. According to the committee in charge of the three conventions it has been estimated more than 2,000 people will visit Port Arthur within the next 10 days with the three conventions.

ATHLETIC FIELD PLANS ARE LAID
May Form Stock Company For Big Project

At a conference of the "sports and attractions committee" of the Chamber of Commerce, held yesterday afternoon, it was announced the committee is working out plans calling for construction of an athletic field 800 feet square on Pleasure Pier, due to be banked adjacent to the present Pier grounds from the canal when the government starts work on widening and deepening the project.

The committee, headed by George Weddell as chairman, and composed of George N. Bliss and A. N. Procter, plan to use dirt from the canal for the construction of the field.

It is thought between $10,000 and $12,000 will be needed to carry out the plans of the "sports and attractions committee," and the advisability of organizing a stock company to raise the needed funds is being considered, it is said.

City Commission Wants More Markers
More traffic markers are needed. They are especially in demand at the intersections of Sixth and Austin, Seventh and Houston and Seventh and Austin.

And besides they are not painted correctly; they should be red. At least this was the consensus of opinion expressed by city commissioners this morning during their regular daily session at 11 o'clock, and as a result the city engineering department was instructed to construct the necessary markers, paint them red and erect them.

DESTROYERS GO TO TRY RESCUE

Commander of American Flyers in Descent
NO WORD RECEIVED

Other Flyers Will Attempt To Locate Him

By United Press.
CHIGNIK, Alaska, April 16.—Maj. Frederick C. Martin, commander of the United States army air fleet attempting a flight around the world, was forced down in the vicinity of Kikxagvik Bay, Alaska, was sought by two United States destroyers today but so far no word has been received as to his fate.

The rocky shore line toward which Major Martin was seen heading by his three flying companions late yesterday is miles from any communication station and until destroyers reach the spot and find the plane, it will be impossible to learn whether he landed safely.

Smith Takes Command.
Lieutenant Lowell Smith, who assumed command of the three remaining planes when Major Martin left the fleet, brought his command on to Chignik and immediately started refueling the planes, with a plan of setting out today to aid the search for the missing pilot.

The destroyers Hull and Cory, which were just leaving Seward for Eads, Washington, were ordered to turn about and to proceed to where Major Martin was last seen.

"As the 'Seattle,' the plane piloted by the flight commander, noted toward the rocky shore, Major Martin had no time to inform his companions what mishap to his plane forced him out of formation. When the three remaining planes arrived here, Lieutenant Smith said he expected his commander to follow along in a short time. He had been forced down during previous 'legs of the flight' from California, but always had managed to show up shortly after the other fliers arrived."

When several hours had passed and the Seattle did not appear over the southern horizon, the destroyers were ordered to start the search.

Smith and his companions expected to get away early today, in case the destroyers have not reached the vicinity by mid-afternoon.

Had Much Trouble.
Major Martin has had continual trouble with the Seattle ever since the planes left Clower Field, Santa Monica, California. He was forced down south of Sacramento, California, in the flight from Sacramento to Eugene, Oregon.

On Lake Douglas, near Seattle, after months had been fated to the Douglas cruisers, the major's plane hit an obstruction and one pontoon was punctured. At the same time "rears" broke away from today.

While landing at Prince Rupert on the flight from Seattle, the Major's plane attempted to land from too low an altitude and broke two wing struts as it landed heavily on the waters of the cove.

BRITISH FLIERS REACH ATHENS.
ATHENS, April 16.—The British round-the-world Amphibian plane arrived at the old Phaleron aerodrome shortly before 11 a. m. today.

The big plane, piloted by Major Stuart Mac Laren, winged its way gracefully into the harbor after departing from Lake Korissia island at Corfu at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

The British airmen were greeted with cheers by crowds which had been waiting for them along the waterfront.

With the arrival of their flight here the British fliers have covered approximately 13,800 miles since their departure from Southampton March 25, in a total flying time of 23 hours, 48 minutes.

SALVATIONISTS AT WORK HERE

Quarters Soon Will Be Established

Although no quarters have yet been secured as a headquarters building for the Port Arthur Salvation Army corps, the work will go forward along regular lines adopted by the organization, Captain George Laing, in charge of the Salvation Army work here, said today.

"No solicitation of business houses and office buildings will be made by the Salvation Army workers, but we will depend upon the offerings taken in at the street services which we will hold in the downtown section each night and Sunday mornings and afternoons," Captain Laing said.

Endorsement of the Salvation Army's work in the city jail at the hospital and home visitation has been given by a number of Port Arthur business men, Captain Laing said. Before giving any help to those who appeal to the organization, careful investigation of character and circumstances in the case are made, Captain Laing said.

A city-wide appeal for funds to carry on the Salvation Army work in Port Arthur probably will be made at a later date, but for the present the work will be dependent upon offerings made at the street meetings, and voluntary contributions made to the workers, or mailed to their residence, 331 Lake Shore drive, apartment 11, Captain Laing said.

"When I started taking Stella Vitae I was so weak from almost continual flow that I could hardly walk across the room. I suffered also from dull, heavy headaches and often would feel so light-headed and giddy I thought I was going to faint. My back gave me no end of trouble and it hurt me to rise from a chair or to bend over to put on my shoes."

"Stella Vitae not only gave me strength but it quieted my nerves that before were always on edge and making my life miserable night and day. I have only taken three bottles so far and my improvement has been so wonderful I believe it will be but a short time till I am as well and strong as I ever was."

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold upon the positive guarantee that the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief.—Ad.

Why Did These Five Chicago Women Commit Murder?—Expert Explains

THEY ALL HAVE SLAYER'S LOOKS

Single-Track Minds Brought On Tragedies

CHICAGO, April 16.—"Women who shoot their men run true to type."

This assertion analyzing a photographic gallery of women slayers, is from Dr. James M. Fitzgerald, famous phenologist and success adviser.

He has just completed a study of Mrs. Beulah May Annan, Titian-haired beauty, who is in the county jail for shooting Harry Kalstedt during a wine party in her husband's absence.

Outstanding out his examination, Dr. Fitzgerald stated also the photographs of other Chicago women slayers: Mrs. Belle Gaertner, now awaiting trial; Sabelle Nitti, child-like peasant; and Katherine Malm, "bandit girl," both of whom have been convicted, and Mrs. Lucile Karanagh, who shot her husband and was acquitted.

Feeling, Colonel Will's Here are the facial characteristics common to them all, according to Dr. Fitzgerald:

Broad nose and cheekbones, full chin and lips, contracted upper frontal skull development, and prominent, bulging forehead just over the eyes and nose.

This latter feature indicates keen perception and also accuracy in shooting. They are all of the motive-vital, action-feeling type. Their feelings rule their will and they don't think of consequences when they act.

"Most all have broad heads," says Dr. Fitzgerald. "You can put it down as a basic principle that the broad-headed animals eat the narrow-headed ones. They have the destructive, acquisitive, passionate qualities. The way for people of this type to keep out of trouble is to keep at work."

"Mrs. Annan has a masculine spirit in a feminine body. She does not clearly understand herself, and no one was more surprised than she when she sobered up and found she had killed a man."

"She has a love of action and excitement. Experiments and experiences dominate her, while routine is unduly irritating. Her mental development was such that she couldn't entertain herself and it did not inhibit spontaneous outbursts."

"Her husband couldn't satisfy her wish for excitement and her need to be jolted and flattered. Hers was not a sexual craving, so much as a need for constant variety."

No Fear of Consequences "If she had been a millionaire's daughter, her temperament could have been given outlet without danger. She was simply the wrong one to have her type of personality."

"Mrs. Gaertner is the most highly developed mentally of the lot. Unless she were drunk she never could have shot. But she loves routine and action."

"Mrs. Malm has great mental alertness and a large ego. Mrs. Karanagh is an impulsive and impulsive enough is of the same feeling-dominated type. Mrs. Nitti is the child, governed by instinct and impulse. She has powerful will but no comprehension."

"All these women are alike in having single-track minds, with imperfect comprehension of consequences. They are 'show me' people, who have to experience to understand, and the pairs are full of this type. Food and sexual interests make a strong appeal to them."

A narrow-headed, reflective person, with the reasoning and moral centers of the upper frontal region well developed never would kill as these women did."

FIG TO PORK CHOP MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 16 J. Pork at $1 a pig is the price quoted by the Indians of the Florida Everglades, while three miles away the hotel keepers of Miami and Palm Beach sell it for $1 a chop. This according to A. B. Skinner, curator of anthropology in the Milwaukee public museum.

The Swedish Railway administration has placed an order for 20 new electric locomotives, involving an expenditure of about $2,500,000.

These Five Women Killed Their Men

FIVE CHICAGO WOMEN WHO KILLED THEIR "MEN"

FEMINISM LEADS THEM TO KILL

"Feminism" is blamed by John Henry Wigmore, dean of Northwestern University Law School, for the seeming highly accelerated trend of Chicago women toward murder.

"Women are setting out to show they can do everything man does," he says.

"Those who are inclined toward good things of life are emulating men in constructive achievement. But those who would lean toward the bad now are going as far as bad men go."

Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director of the Chicago Crime Commission, doesn't concede an increase in the rate of crime by women.

"They are just bunching their hits at this time," he declares. "Another year, and the rate will be about normal."

NEFF WINS HALF OF HIS AUDIENCE

Crowd Votes on Delegate Instruction

By United Press. WEATHERFORD, Texas, April 16.—Governor Pat Neff brought half of his audience to their feet here when he called for standing vote of those who agreed with his speech in behalf of an unqualified democratic delegation to the national convention.

"Let all those who favor delegates instructed as to principle only stand," he said. Approximately half the audience rose.

The governor left here today for McKinney where he is scheduled to deliver his formal speech this afternoon in support of unqualified delegates to the New York convention.

"The hands of our delegates to the national convention should not be tied so as to compel them to vote for any one individual," the governor contends in his speeches.

"There is no outstanding candidate at present who can at this time be selected as the leader of the democratic hosts. National politics is in a chaotic condition."

OH! GIRLS, HERE AT LAST IS MODEL MAN CLOTHES HORSE

GEORGE A. CROKER

NEW YORK, April 16.—The most photographed man in New York is George A. Croker, the highest-priced clothes horse in the world.

He models everything from hats to shoes and is considered the perfect man by photographers.

George who is 29 years old, with black curls, hair and brown eyes, weighs 171 pounds and stands 5 feet 11 inches high.

Born in Troy, N. Y., he first modeled collars and then came to New York where he has posed as the perfect model for hats, suits, shoes, jewelry—for sculptors, photographers and artists.

His pictures are constantly being published in newspapers and magazines throughout the country.

When a manufacturer wants to introduce a new and daring innovation in dress, he commissions George Croker to display it at the most fashionable social functions.

Then the copy cats rush in and follow in his stylish wake.

Skating is George's favorite winter sport, with tennis and golf holding forth in the summer. But three times each week—winter and summer—he indulges in a hard workout in the gymnasium to retain his graceful lines.

Once he trained down 30 pounds to model a certain costume. "I can decrease my weight 10 pounds a week," he said.

Alleged Youthful Forger Held Here

But one arrest was made here yesterday, a young man being brought back here from Beaumont to face charges of forgery lodged against him in connection with a number of checks which have been turned down at the Beaumont bank when presented for payment.

According to Detective Y. Q. Burzinski the young man forged the name of his father to several checks which were later turned down at the bank.

AN EXHILARATING EFFECT A bottle of Herline on the shelf at home is the young man's friend when the digestion gets out of order or the bowels fail to act. One or two doses is all that is necessary to start things moving and restore that fine feeling of exhilaration and buoyancy of spirits which belongs only to perfect health. Price 80c. SMITH IN BID FOR NOMINATION

Leaves It to Friends To Obtain Honor

ALBANY, N. Y., April 16.—Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York today is a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination. Making his first public utterance on the question, which has been agitated with varying degrees of strength for over a year, the governor of the empire state, speaking before the democratic designating convention here, announced his position in this language:

With Never Regret It. "If other delegates to the national convention feel the same way about it as you do and the result is a triumph, you can tell them that I pledged you here before God Almighty himself that they will never have cause to regret their action through any act of mine."

A few minutes before Smith made his speech, the convention which was called to select delegates and alternates to the national convention had adopted unanimously a resolution that the delegates be instructed to present the name of Governor Smith to the convention as the empire state's choice to lead the democratic party in the nation.

His Heart Not Dead. Smith said he had not raised his hand "either inside the state or outside of it," to help the present situation along and did not intend to. But he admitted "the man who has that ambition (to be president of the United States) has a dead heart."

Smith today was resting at the executive mansion and is not expected to amplify his remarks in any way. He will probably leave his campaign in the hands of his friends and political advisers.

German Acceptance Is Due in Paris

Reason for delay in delivery was not explained.

AN ARTISTIC JOB MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 16.—Theodore Tuttle waited in the prisoner's pen in district court, his face swathed in bandages. The deputy called Tuttle's case, crying in a loud voice, "Judge drunk."

The judge looked at the prisoner. "Plain drunk, nothing," he said. "Highly decorated, I would say. One dollar and costs."

BRITISH FEAR ANTI-JAP BILL

Believe It Threatens Peace In Pacific

By United Press. LONDON, April 16.—The British press today sees in adoption of the Japanese exclusion amendment to the immigration bill by the congress in Washington "grave danger" to peace in the Pacific.

The Daily News ridicules the allegation that Ambassador Hanibara's note to Secretary Hughes, urging against adoption of the amendment, constitutes a "threat" to American sovereignty and insists that the senate's action of the amendment demonstrates "a dangerous spirit of enmity" towards Japan.

The senate should go slow, the newspaper says, and "consider the note for what it is—an explanation—and think carefully of the dangers toward peace which lurk in intolerance."

All the newspapers print dispatches from Washington in prominent positions telling the progress of debate on the measure.

There are certain species of ants in Africa and South America before the march of which nothing can live.

Pre-Nuptial Hospitality Honors Miss Helen Crum And Bridegroom-Elect

A MOST charming pre-nuptial hospitality was tendered Miss Helen Crum and Charles Perry on Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. L. A. Gleckler in Model Addition, which had as hostesses Mrs. D. A. Daigle and Mrs. L. A. Gleckler. A color scheme of violet and white was carried out with beautiful floral wreath, wisteria and violets in lovely array throughout the house, and beautiful ferns in violet baskets tied with lavender ribbon were set about.

Adding another lovely touch of floral arrangement to the room. As the guests were received by the hostesses each lady was given a dainty bracelet of violets tied with lavender ribbon, and each gentleman was given a boutonniere. After the hostesses had greeted the guests, they were met by little Miss Rosemary Daigle, who presented each guest with a program of games for the evening which was as follows:

The Tongue Game.
Writing of Wills.
Surprise-puzzle description of the wedding.

During the Ring.
Presenting the Wedding Gifts.

The Rough Road to Matrimony.

After a delightful evening of much merriment in playing the novel games, the guests were served a delicious ice course, in which the color scheme and the bridal touch were carried out.

In a most charming and original manner, the guests were then treated to a program of games for the evening.

Immediately after being served, the guests were given baskets and told to proceed with the Easter egg hunt, which wound up by leading them to the rabbit in her nest in the dining room, which held many lovely handkerchiefs for Miss Crum and Mr. Perry. These enjoying this hospitality were the honor guests, Miss Helen Crum and Charles Perry.

Here's What to Eat and— Lose Weight Gain Weight

Three large unsweetened stewed prunes, 2 soft boiled eggs, 1 cup clear soup, 1-2 cup combination vegetable salad, 1 whole sweetbread split and broiled, 12 stalks asparagus, 1 head lettuce, 1 baked apple, 2 crisp pieces gluten toast, 1 gluten roll, 1 pint skimmed milk.

Whether the person on a reducing diet goes breakfastless or not should depend on her occupation and the chances she has for a hearty lunch.

For instance, the woman who's husband stays down town for lunch will not prepare a meal for herself alone and she should eat a nourishing breakfast.

But the woman who must serve a hearty meal at noon time, for a family, will find a breakfast of fruit, toast and coffee more to her liking.

The breakfast in bed should consist of a cup of hot water and nothing more.

If a woman does her own work she will actually need food to help her through the morning and she should not try to overdo a good thing by overeating her physical or nervous strength.

The business woman needs a breakfast to help her start her day.

The omission of luncheon or a very light noon meal balances the periods between eating far better than the omission of breakfast.

CASE AGAINST HOTEL ON TRIAL

Former Pro Agent Tells Of Work As Bellboy

Special to The News. BEAUMONT, Texas, April 16.—Hearing in the Hotel Beaumont liquor case was resumed Wednesday morning in federal court, and a number of employees of the hotel were called to the stand.

The case is one of the hardest fought in the history of federal court. Steve King, attorney for Bob Cronkite, former assistant manager, Wednesday morning challenged more than half the questions propounded by witnesses by Assistant District Atty. S. D. Bennett. He has insisted on the most definite information on every point. In his attempt to clear Cronkite of the charge against him.

Former Bellboy Testifies. Harry Burnett, former bellboy at the hotel, was put on the stand on Wednesday morning. He testified that he had been discharged twice by the hotel, once on account of a charge against him for selling liquor there.

A taxi-driver was next called to the stand. He operates a stand next to the hotel and told of buying liquor for a man who accompanied Cronkite one day to his place of business. He stated that he had sent to the steamer, Deutschland, then in port, where the liquor was obtained.

Attorney King questioned him about a grand jury indictment returned against him. "Didn't you try to get Cronkite and V. G. Biedenbarn, manager of the hotel, to go on your bond?" he asked. The witness replied in the negative, and he was then asked if he was not "mad" at the hotel because they refused to do this. He again replied that he was not.

Vann on Stand. J. W. Vann, head of the field prohibition forces at Austin, was put on the stand during the morning, and testified that the Hotel Beaumont had a bad reputation as far as liquor violations were concerned. Attorney King asked that this testimony be stricken out since Arthur Kaufman, president of the hotel company, lived there.

Federal Agent Bee Cowen brought out 35 quarts of liquor during the proceedings Tuesday afternoon, labeled Canadian Club, and other well known brands. The liquor was said to have been taken in a raid on Hotel Beaumont in August of last year.

Lee Howell, former agent, was put in the stand for three hours Tuesday afternoon. Howell hired at the hotel as a bellboy and during the time he was employed there gathered a great deal of information, he said. He stated that George Gant, head of the bellboys had arrangements with employees to sell liquor to guests in the hotel. He told in what room the liquor was kept and how it was delivered.

Howell stated, however, that he had been promised nothing by the prohibition department for the work he had done at the hotel.

Questioning by Attorney Steve King brought answers from witnesses that they had never seen Bob Cronkite engaged in selling or handling liquor.

Later the party danced at Bate's dancing place, a rendezvous established here by Gerald Kiley, ex-football star of the University of Wisconsin.

SEVEN-FOOTER LOST

GREENVILLE, Del., April 16.—Robert Henry Langshaw, 26, height, 7 feet 7 inches, is lost. Recently he took French leave of his mother, and the Navy department has been asked to search for him. His mother says he is "quite a reader, horseback rider, crack shot and a good boxer."

have been informed of the 30-day suspension urged by the directorate, during the executive session at noon. After the meeting, Mayor Logan told newspaper men he had nothing to say regarding the outcome of the conference.

May Not Pass It

"We don't know just what action we will take," the mayor said in response to a question. "We may pass the ordinance tomorrow, and we may not pass it at all. We may grant the request of the Chamber of Commerce; we appreciate their attitude in wanting to see the transportation problem solved."

"We will have two more executive sessions this afternoon, and we will go into the Chamber of Commerce request further," he concluded.

Asked by a reporter the object of two executive sessions of the commission this afternoon, the mayor replied:

"You ask too many questions."

Directors Confer

The Chamber of Commerce voted at their last monthly meeting of directors to go before the commission with a request that the jitney ordinance be withheld. Howard Smith, president of the chamber, refused to call any meeting of the directors to discuss the transportation situation in Port Arthur because of his affiliation with the traction company, according to Art L. Burge, secretary-manager of the chamber, this morning.

The directors insisted upon a conference to discuss the transportation problem, and Henry Lohmann, vice-president, called the meeting Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the body voted to present their request for a 30-day extension of time in passing the proposed jitney statute.

In order that they may work out suggestions, which will then be presented to the city commission.

It developed this morning that during commission meeting yesterday Mayor Logan and City Attorney Vernon J. Wistner had discussed certain phases of the proposed jitney bill, and had concluded some changes will be necessary before the measure is passed finally.

When the commission failed to pass the measure on third and final reading this morning, it was brought out that in the event it is passed at all regulatory phases of the ordinance will probably be passed at the same time.

CAMPBELL SAYS HE'LL GET POST

Expects Commission As District Judge

Special to The News. BEAUMONT, Texas, April 16.—Judge J. D. Campbell, now judge of city corporation court, stated here this morning that he believed without a doubt he would officially receive his commission as new judge of the 90th district court here either today, or tomorrow.

There is little doubt here but that either F. E. Eastering or Judge Campbell will be given the commission. A number of other attorneys from Beaumont and Port Arthur have applied for the office, but Eastering and Campbell only have been endorsed by attorneys here.

Local attorneys declare the new judge will have to have several qualifications. He must be, they declare, a strict prohibitionist, a Baptist, and have Klan sympathies. Eastering is a Baptist and does not favor the Klan. Judge Campbell, however, is a Methodist and is endorsed by the Klan. Eastering, however, is an old friend of Governor Neff's and it is believed that this may influence him somewhat in appointing a man for the office.

Judge A. W. Dyeus of Port Arthur is also mentioned for the place.

Bit of Ireland

Up in Nebraska

ALBION, Neb., April 16.—A mile north of here, beside a lazy stream, is a "little bit of Ireland" transplanted from the Emerald Isle, for on the "little farm" lives a family whose members emigrated from Ireland and have since kept all of the Irish customs, even the language.

Mrs. Rose Garvey, mother of the family, recently celebrated her 112th birthday. Her children live with her. Anthony, the baby of the family, is only 68 years old. Michael is 72 and Patrick 81.

"We're just Irish," said Anthony. "All of us are bachelors, and we're going to stay with mother."

There is another child, Mrs. Garvey confided, who wandered from the homefold and got married; John, 70, lives three miles from the home-farm and is considered a stranger in a foreign land.

Since 1852, when the Garveys took up their homestead near here, little by little additional acres of land have been added. To them it is still the "little farm."

In the county register of deeds of office, however, are recorded hundreds of acres under the names of the Garvey family.

A scrubby rose bush lies dormant at one corner of the porch. "Soon he time to get my rose bush ready for summer," Mrs. Garvey commented. "It's been there as long as we have lived here."

Despite her years, Mrs. Garvey gives the rose bush personal attention.

OFFICER ARRESTING MRS. CANDLER IS DISCHARGED

ATLANTA, Ga., April 12.—Chief James L. Beavers was discharged from the police department today by order of the police committee of city council.

The committee found Beavers guilty of two technical charges but exonerated him on a charge of arresting Mrs. Asa G. Candler, pretty wife of the millionaire soft drink manufacturer, because it might lead to a divorce.

The committee held Beavers in arresting Mrs. Candler had acted as the department was accustomed to in handling such cases and that no divorce proceedings have resulted.

Money Galore, But Can't Spend It

GEORGIANNA RUSIN

By NEA Service
LORAIN, Ohio, April 12.—Georgianna Rusin, 12, has $300,000, but her mother won't let her have a cent of it.

"The money might spoil her," her mother explains. "Wealth does not bring happiness."

So Georgianna dresses like her playmates, attends public school and does the same house work she did before she obtained the $300,000.

Georgianna—probably one of the country's richest girls of her age—must remain the daughter of a housekeeper, without a car or governess.

Georgianna's mother was housekeeper for George L. Duell, wealthy real estate dealer. Duell never had a child of his own, so he lavished his affection on Georgianna. When he died he left the greater part of his fortune to the child.

"I wish it had never happened," says her mother. "I live in terror that my little girl will not remain the same Georgianna."

ALL A MATTER OF NAME

LONDON, April 16.—Production of "Three Weeks," a screen version of Eleanor Glynn's novel, was forbidden here. The objection was to the name. The censors didn't find anything especially objectionable in the actual picture—but the name! They said it was awful! And so, there is a picture running in London called, "The Romance of a Queen." It's the old "Three Weeks" with a new title substituted. And the censors are leaving it absolutely alone.

VOTERS WANTED CITY CLEANED UP

'I'm Going to Do It' Says Petticoat Executive

By GEORGE BRITZ, The News Special Writer.
COLUMBUS CITY, Iowa, April 16.—Petticoat government, women the absolute monarchs, even an instance of wife running for office against her husband and beating him.

All this nightmare of the old-time anti-suffragist has come true here. And the little town, started at what it has done, sits back with a smile, and feels proud of itself.

Mayor Eva Bretz, school teacher head of the victorious woman's ticket in the recent town election, brandishes a broom as she welcomes company on her front doorstep and tells them:

"I think the voters meant they wanted a cleanup when they put us in office by this heavy vote. I'm truly going to try to give Columbus City a house-cleaning. They must have a thought I had the gab and the 'it' to do it."

On Picked Woman
The heavy vote to which the new mayors refers was only 68 to 27, for Columbus City has a population of not more than 400. But it was sufficient to oust completely the old roster of officials and to elect women for mayor, assessor, treasurer and five council posts.

One of the old council members, J. C. Hieble, was defeated by his own wife. But politics has made no ripple in their domestic harmony. The women already have started exercising the right to change their minds, one of the victorious councilwomen having announced since the election she did not want the office and would not serve.

About Miss Bretz, the new mayor, there is a cheerful, brusque determination which indicates that opponents of the administration will be made to feel eventually like bad little boys told to stay in after school. "Being assistant P. M. is the only experience in public office I've had," she says, "but I can't see that men could run the town better than we."

There's some crack-shooting and bootlegging and things like that around here that I'm going to try to stop. And in summer they're not to quit racing automobiles through the streets at 40 miles an hour."

Man-Picked Ticket
The mayor denies she is old-fashioned, but she does not admire bobbed hair, and women who smoke cigars will get no more sympathy than the scantiest constitutional requirements. "Oh, Eva Bretz is smart, she's smart," declared George Kern, the most pleased man in Columbus City. "She'll run things right. She'll see that the raggedy old town is cleaned up and that the law is respected."

The winning ticket was picked by a caucus of "some of the boys" over the counter of Kern's lunch room, after the "regulars" had renounced the old office-holders. Some of the defeated candidates make the excuse that the entire women's ticket was a joke. But the town as a whole is seriously back of the new officials.

The one "regular" remark heard in a day's visit in Columbus City—its from a woman too—is this: "I bet there'll be a grand hair-pulling about the second meeting of the council. Eva Bretz is German, and Minnie Hieble is re-headed. Just watch them disagree."

FEAR TROUBLE IN WILLIAMSON

Home of Klan Cyclops Is Fired Into

By United Press
MARION, April 16.—Fear of further trouble in Williamson county were expressed today following two disturbances affecting a Ku Klux Klan lodge and a judge who called a grand jury which indicted Klan leaders. They brow of Sam Stern, Klan cyclops of Marion and chairman of the county board of supervisors, was fired into by unknown assailants about 10 shots were fired.

City Judge E. N. Bowen of Herrin who called the grand jury which indicted more than a score of Klan leaders for their activities in the recent battle during which Glenn Young, prohibition worker, seized control of Herrin's city government, was arrested by Young and Chief of Police John Ford, on a charge of filing false affidavits in the hotly contested city election yesterday.

County and city officials are taking steps to prevent another sanguinary battle in "bloody" Williamson county.

Ft. Worth Votes For New City Charter

By United Press
FORT WORTH, April 16.—By an almost 4 to 1 vote Fort Worth voters decided Tuesday to draft and consider a new city charter.

Groceries Win Out In Contest With Art

CARMEL, BY THE SEA, Calif., April 16.—Groceries stood triumphant today over art in Carmel in the Sea. In the city election artists and the poets pitted their strength against the dealers in potatoes, hot dogs and real estate, and art lost.

By a margin of two votes an ordinance was adopted permitting grocery stores, soda fountains and lunch counters to run rampant over Carmel's sacred landscape.

The artists succeeded in electing two members of the board of town trustees.

The business element elected a carpenter and a stage driver. A druggist was named mayor and fifth member of the board.

Thrift Essays Written for First National Bank by Pupils of Port Arthur Public Schools

There were once two little girls. One was seven years old and the other was eight. Their names were Mary and the other Mary. Mary saved her money and Mary did not. Every week their fathers would give them each a quarter.

One evening after school Mary went to the drug store and bought one ice cream cone, which cost five cents, and a nickel's worth of candy. Mary put her money in the bank.

At the end of the week Mary had one dollar and seventy-five cents. One day Mary went to the jewelry store and bought a wrist watch. The next day Mary wore it to school. When Mary saw her wrist watch she wanted one too. So that evening she asked her father for some money. Her father said, "Where is your money?" Mary said she didn't have any. He said: "Don't you think that Mary bought it with the money she saved?"

So ever since that day Mary saved her money, and got her a wrist watch too.

Girls and boys, never spend your money for candy or things that are of any use.

Every boy and girl should be thrifty. So when you are big you have plenty of money and don't have to work so hard.

Nederland Sluggers Clash With Port Neches Nine This Afternoon at 5 o'Clock On Home Diamond

Victor Miller Meets Charlie Hall in Athletic Club Tonight

Grapplers Clash At Catchweights In Finish Match

By BILL ARCHER
The News Sports Editor

LISTEN, fellows: Tonight in the big arena up in the Port Arthur Athletic Club, there's going to be some exciting stuff out loose. Here's the program:

Vic Miller, undefeated welterweight, of Port Arthur, versus Charlie Hall, the Beaumont flash, in a finish, no-time-limit wrestling bill at catchweights. Main card.

Younz Zibby versus Strangler "Louis" in a 15-minute match for a fall. First preliminary.

One other good preliminary preceding the main go.

Management of the Athletic Club, highly elated over the prospects of an exciting bill for the evening, announce the card will get under way at 8 o'clock sharp. If you aren't there at 8, then you'll miss some of the hot stuff.

Vic Miller is a wrestler of no mean ability. He has met and defeated some of the best men in the game, including the one-time champion, Jack Reynolds of Indianapolis, who says of the Port City star that "Miller is one of the best waterweights I ever saw."

He's a bulldozer at the Gallop. That's one way Victor uses as keeping fit as a fiddle for such engagements as he will encounter this evening.

Hall In Good Shape

Latest word from the Beaumont prodigy, Hall, was to the effect that he would arrive here late this afternoon in the pink of condition, and ready for the mill. Hall has recently engaged in a series of matches throughout Central Texas, where he has just conducted a tour on the mats. He is coming here tonight fully intent upon beating Miller and annexing one of the biggest laurels he could collect to his belt. It's a case to do or die, though, that Hall will find a willing opponent in Miller.

Miller has been entertaining the fans up in the Athletic Club during the past evenings with his training stunts. If you don't think he's fast, you just haven't seen him work. Vic knows as much and more about wrestling than any other fellow his class that ever stepped out.

This writer will be hard mistaken. If Miller and Hall fail to furnish Port City fans with one of the most entertaining wrestling matches of the season.

CLOUDS HOVER OVER DALLAS

Slim Love Faces Joe Pate in First Clash

DALLAS, April 16.—Dark clouds hover over Dallas this morning on the occasion of the scheduled opening of the Texas League baseball season. Dallas and Fort Worth meet in the opening session.

Clear weather was promised for this afternoon, however, by the weather bureau and officials expected a record attendance.

Slim Love, Dallas outpaw, and Joe Pate, Fort Worth, are slated for the pitching jobs.

FIRST SHUTOUT GAME

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Walter Johnson, ace of the Washington team, opened his eighteenth campaign in the American league with a shutout victory over Philadelphia, 4 to 0.

Excellent Coolidge officially opened the season by tossing out the first ball. A crowd of more than 25,000 witnessed the opening game. Score:

Washington 021 010 000—1 7 0
Harris, Ogden, Meeker, Bannan, Gardner and Peckins; Johnson and Ruth.

HARVARD NINE IS HARD HIT

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 16.—Joe McGone, Harvard three-sportsman, is lost to Crimson athletes for all time. Recently an old knee injury began to trouble him and doctors said that further play would necessitate a serious operation and a knee possibly stiffened for life. McGone, a sophomore, was expected to play second base on the baseball team. He was a crack man and a backfield man in football. His loss, together with that of Captain Percy J. Fakin, shortstop, regularly injured and Ken Hall, leading pitcher, all with erysipelas, has dealt Harvard's baseball prospects a severe blow.

DEFEAT PITTSBURG

CINCINNATI, April 16.—Before a record breaking crowd, Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh in the first game of the championship season 6 to 5. The actual paid attendance was 35,717.

Score by innings:

Cincinnati 101 200 011—6 9 2

217,000 OUT TO SEE FIRST TILT

Flashy Games Greet Fans in First Rounds

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 16.—

With a total of more than 217,000 at the opening games of the major league season, baseball started to live up to the pre-season "bigger and better" predictions.

New York with 45,000, Cincinnati with 37,547 and Detroit with 31,000 topped the list while Philadelphia was in the hole with a rather meager 10,690.

The total attendance in the National league ran to approximately 105,000 while the American league topped it with 112,000.

Opening Is Fast
Good baseball for so early in the season marked the major league games close finishers.

Perhaps the biggest feature of the day was the shutout pitched for Washington against the Athletics by Walter Johnson and the comeback of the popular George Seler, the new manager of the Browns.

Starting his 15th season in the major leagues, Johnson let the Athletics down without a run and with only four hits and he struck out eight batters.

Seler Proves Ability
Seler got two hits in a pinch that drove in two runs and handled 15 chances in the field without a wobble.

If Seler can have the good fortune to continue that kind of a game, the Browns will be a factor in the pennant race.

It would be absurd to base any predictions upon the first game of the season but the Giants did not thrill the New York fans with the form they showed against the Robins. The pitching was bad, the fielding bad and the base running stupid and terrible.

Power of the Reds

The power of the Red pitching staff was shown when Donohue was knocked out of the box by the Pirates and Tom Sheehan, one of the new pitchers was rushed to the rescue. He held the Pirates and the game was jerked out of the fire. Last year the Reds had no secondaries to send in when the going got bad for the regulars.

Cleveland, in having Sheehan burned for three winning runs in one inning by the Tigers gave evidence of why the Indians were not picked to win the American League pennant.

The Yanks showed some of the cameness that will be a big factor in their drive for the pennant when they got going in the ninth inning after having been blanked all the way and won the game from the Red Sox.

HELEN WILL GO TO EUROPE SOON

BERKELEY, Cal., April 16.—Helen Wills, national women's tennis champion, will leave Berkeley for her European campaign May 7, it was announced today. She sails on the Berengaria May 14. On board ship a she may continue practice.

Following her arrival in England, May 20, Miss Wills will play in the international matches in England in the Olympic games in France. Her mother will accompany her.

YANKS BEAT RED SOX

BOSTON, April 16.—Twenty-five thousand enthusiasts saw the world champion Yanks defeat the Red Sox 2 to 1 in the opening game of the season. Score:

New York ... 000 000 002—2 5 0
Boston 000 010 000—1 2 3
Shawkey, Hoyt and Schang; Ehmske and O'Neil.

DUSEK FIRST HEAVYWEIGHT

Grappler, Leading Contender in States, Here Friday

RUDY DUSEK, ace of the 198-pounders, meets M. Thompson, the Washington grappler, in Bill Fort's Elkie ring Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in the first heavy-weight match to be staged here this season.

Dusek has conquered Paul Jones and Clarence Eklund in his recent mills, and has wins over Charles Rentrop and other notable light-heavyweights in the game. Jones is possibly the heaviest of the bunch he has met since he came south, the Houston flash weighing around 195 for his mill against the Wyoming wrestler.

Monday, following his mill in Port Arthur, Dusek will be pitted against George Vassel Actor, "The Pride of Port Arthur," in the Houston (Texas) Auditorium, in a finish mill. It is understood an effort will be made to bring him to Port Arthur for other matches following his appearance against Thompson if he succeeds in trimming the Washington man; however, in the event Thompson is victorious, Promoter Fort has in mind a series of bouts for Thompson which may include Jones and Actor in the local ring.

TIMELY TIPS TO AMATEURS

SAYS WALTER MUYE
Pitcher, New York Yankees

To be a successful pitcher one must like his job. The winning pitcher must concentrate on the ball field. Many a ball game is won in the clubhouse. Skull practice, as the daily conference called, often paves the way to victory.

In these sessions the weakness and strength of the opposition is pointed out. No one profits more than the pitcher.

Asked to give a definite bit of advice I would say, don't hurry your pitching. Haste creates wildness, very often carelessness.

Study your batter. Dwell on his weakness. Consider every situation of the game and pitch accordingly. Put some thought back of every ball pitched.

One badly pitched ball often loses a game. That has been my experience.

INDIANS LOSE

DETROIT, April 16.—Detroit opened the American league season by defeating Cleveland 4 to 2. Cobb, Heilmann and Sparker shared honors in fielding, almost impossible catches. The crowd was estimated at approximately 24,000. Score: Cleveland ... 000 102 000—3 11 0
Detroit ... 040 103 000—4 8 0
Smute and Myatt; Russ and Hassler.

ATHLETICS TO PLAY BEAUMONT

Clash Sunday Afternoon At Cosmopolitan Park

The Beaumont All-Stars, one of the fastest semi-pro organizations in the North End, will invade Port Arthur Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to face the Port Arthur Athletic Club ball nine in the latter's first clash of the season. It was announced this morning. The game will be played at Cosmopolitan ball park.

Members of the Athletics turn out this afternoon at 5 o'clock for their second workout this week in preparation for the battle. They are looking for baseball encounters, and ought to give the Beaumonters a bitter run for their money Sunday, although the strength of the visitors, and the fact that they have already engaged in games this year both at home and abroad must be considered in determining the comparative ability of the two squads.

GIANTS LOSE OPENER

NEW YORK, April 16.—Playing a strong game behind Dutch Reuther's efficient pitching, the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the New York Giants in the opening game 3 to 2 before a crowd of 23,000, the greatest that ever saw a National league evening in New York. Score: Brooklyn ... 101 010 000—3 9 2

LEADS BROWNS TO WIN
CHICAGO, April 16.—George Harold Siler, outstanding star of the 1922 American league season, came back to the game after a year's absence due to impaired vision, making his debut as manager of the St. Louis Browns, contributed largely to the team's 7 to 3 victory over Chicago by smashing out two hits in four times up. The game drew an opening attendance of about 25,000. Score:

St. Louis ... 200 110 210—7 11 1
Chicago 200 100 000—3 6 3

RYAN BEATS GORDON
NEW YORK, April 16.—Tommy Ryan, McKeesport, won a 10-round bout from Harry Gordon, New York. Gordon was floored in the seventh round but did not take the count.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

Fred Clarke, one of the greatest outfielders of all time, made a tour of the major league baseball camps this spring in the interest of a firm manufacturing baseball paraphernalia.

Clarke, who has been actively out of baseball for some years, was impressed by three things—a lack of good pitchers, a scarcity of good throwing outfielders and the want of attention paid to base running.

The former star outfielder, who piloted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a pennant and a world series in 1909, had some interesting comment on what he observed in the southern camps.

According to Clarke, of all the camps he visited, Manager Miller Huggins was the only one who seemed satisfied with his pitching.

"Apparently during the past five or six years the development of worthy white pitchers has not been in keeping with the rest of the game," says Clarke.

"I saw only a limited number of pitchers who had established themselves within the last half dozen years."

The pitching staffs are largely made up of fading veterans, stars in their day who have passed their peak, and promising recruits.

More than one big league manager is going to be much disappointed if certain highly touted recruits fail to come through.

There is no denying the correctness of Fred Clarke's sleep of the pitching situation. Most of the managers frankly admit a weakness in this department of the game.

"In the old days, the outfielders in spring training paid almost as much attention to their arms as did the pitchers. They constantly strove for accuracy in their throwing."

"In only a few of the camps did I see the outfielders do any practice throwing to speak of."

"Base running also seemed to be overlooked as an important feature of play. Despite the fact that certain managers seem to think there is to be a revival of base running."

"Possibly the lively ball is responsible for the drastic changes in the style of play. I am told that is the reason."

It is an interesting fact that Clarke holds the assist record for an outfielder. In a big league game he threw out two men at the plate, one at third and one at second, a total of four.

The observations of so great an expert as Fred Clarke recall what Frank Chance said to me a few weeks after his return to the Boston Red Sox last year:

"I guess it's the same old game, Bill, but they certainly play it differently."

INDIANS HAVE STRONGER CLUB

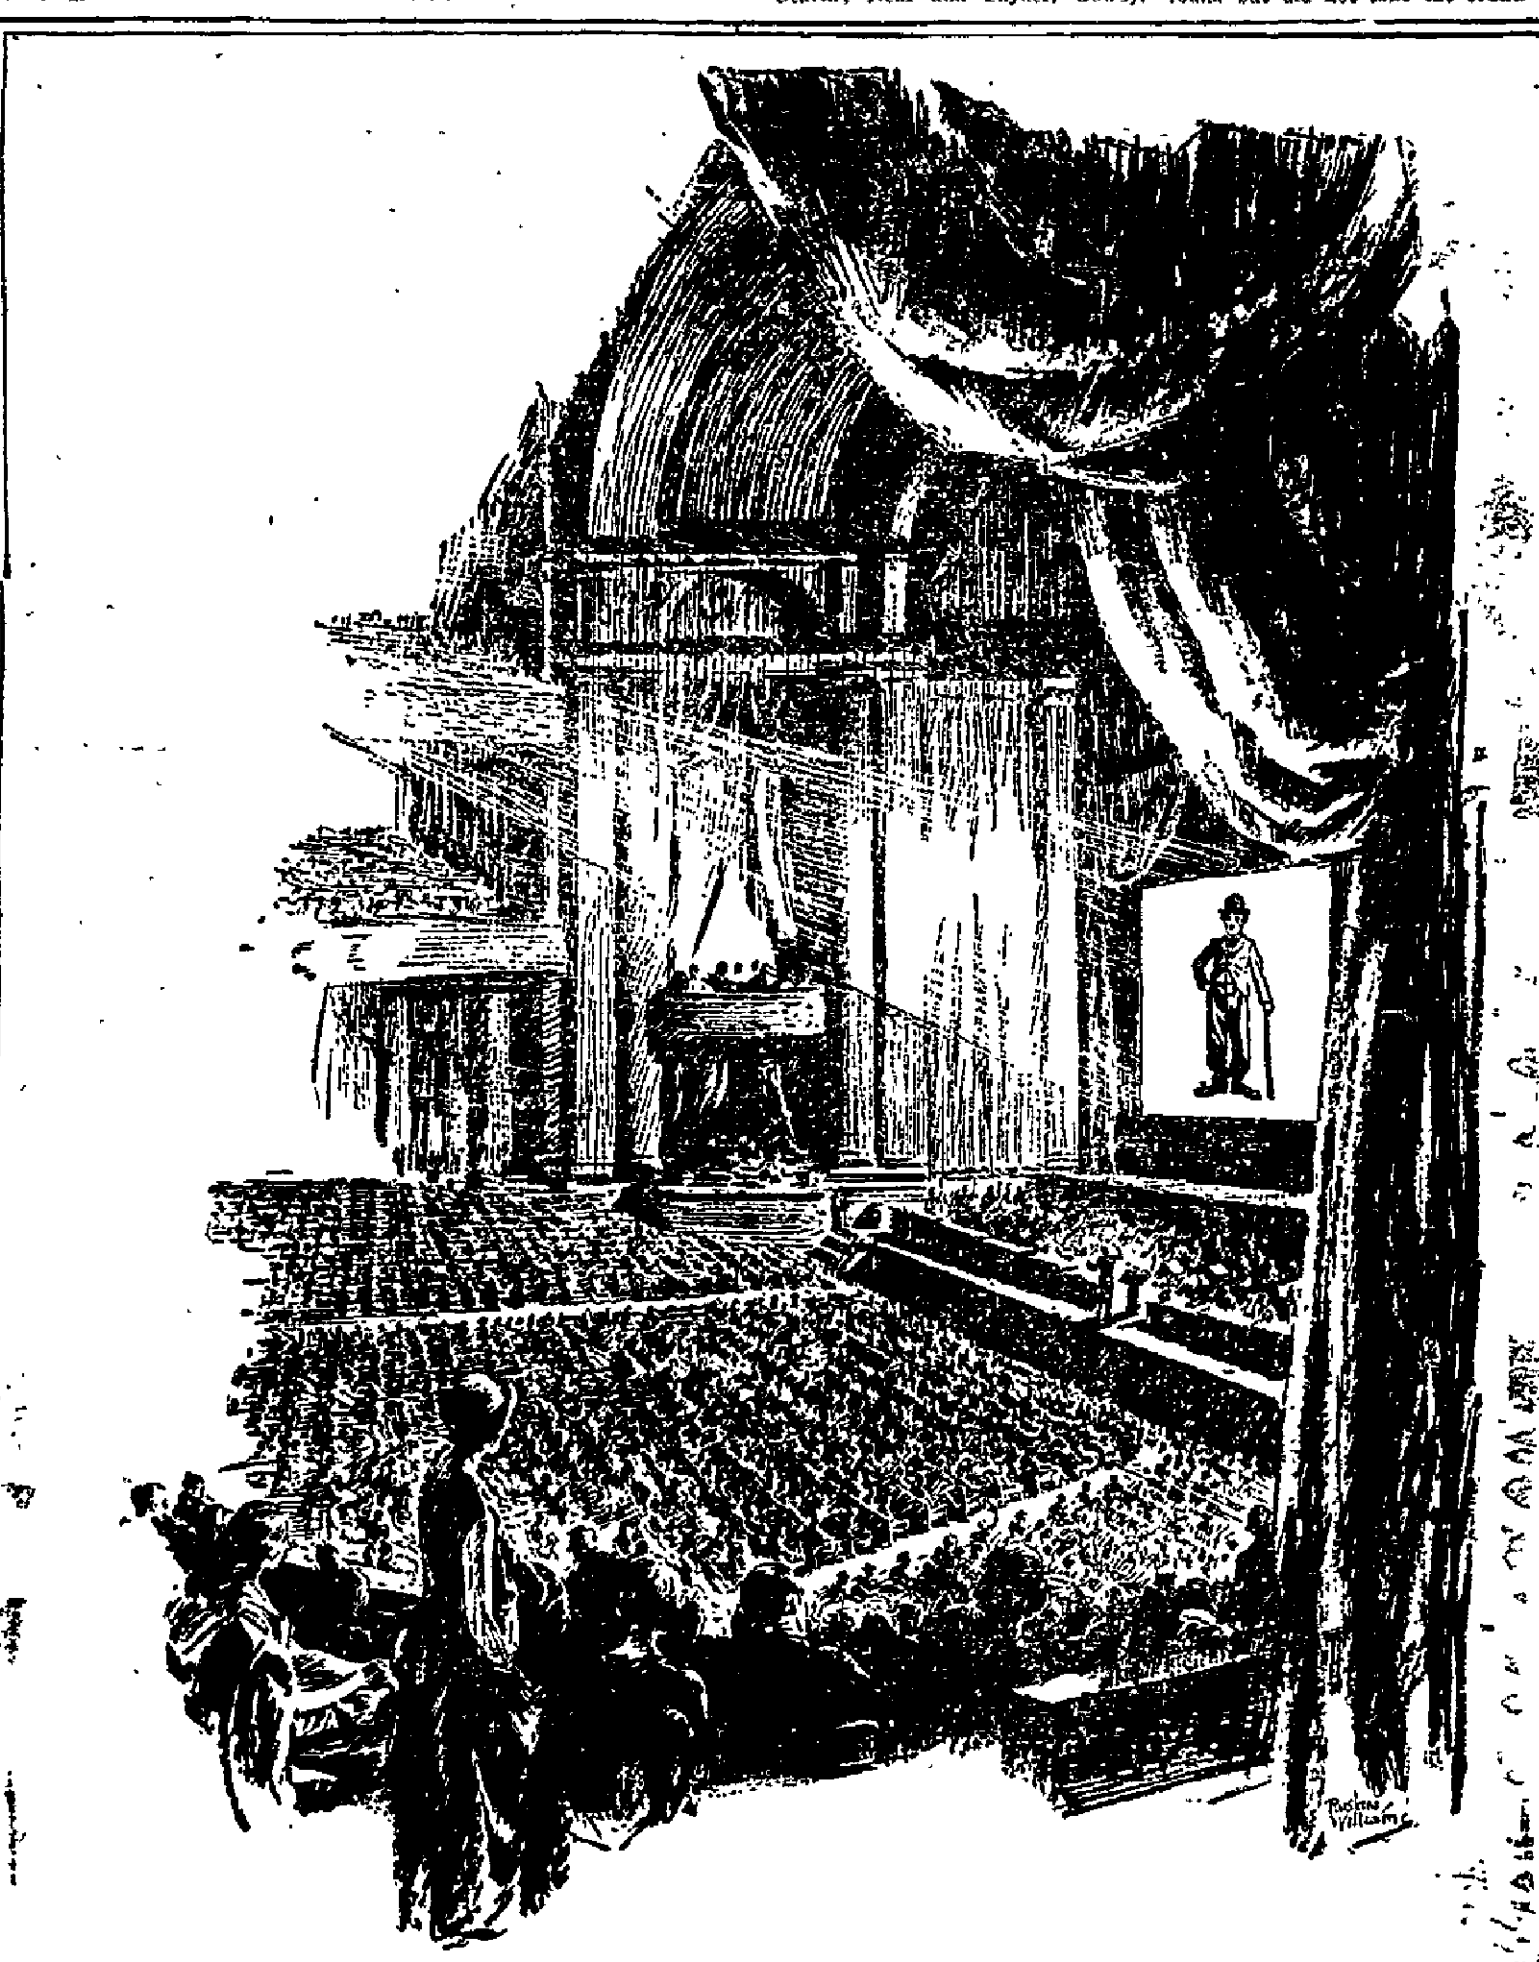

CLEVELAND, April 16.—By the acquisition of George Burns at first base, and with better pitching than for several years, Cleveland is sure to be in the fight for the American League pennant, E. S. Barnard, president of the club, declared today.

In Jamieson, Stephenson, Speaker, Joe Sewell, Burns and Summa, the first six men in the line-up, all of whom have batted better than .300, the team has a "wrecking crew" that ranks with anyone in the league.

M'KINNEY LIONS TO PLAY BAYLOR CUBS

M'KINNEY, Texas, April 16.—Coach Bridges is bringing the Baylor Cubs here for a two-day engagement with the high school Lions. The locals have several games booked for the balance of the month.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, April 16.—Bobby Storer, Lancaster, Pa., and Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, Indiana, went 10 rounds to a draw here last night.

Such popularity must be deserved

BIG HITS don't just happen. Popularity doesn't come ready-made.

In pictures, plays or products, success must be built on something REAL.

Thus Chesterfield's swift rise to popularity was no accident. Smokers were ready for a better cigarette and in Chesterfield they found it.

Taste convinced them. That's why men are turning by thousands to Chesterfield.
